

Wallaceburg TRAILS

This full circle trail combines several shorter routes into a complete loop from the launch point at the west end of Crother's Park. It travels along Running Creek, the Snye (downstream) and the Sydenham River back to Crother's Park.

It is an outstanding example of flat water river paddling and with a total length of 29 km (18 miles) it requires most of the day to complete.